A new publication by Casa Alianza Mexico, the Mexican Bankers Association's Foundation and THAIS entitled, "Las Familias de los Ninos y Ninas de la Calle" (The Families of the Street Children) has just been published.

The 60 page book is a study of the families involved in Casa Alianza's Family Reintegration program and gives a valuable insight into the different reasons for which children leave their families and head to the streets of the world's largest city.
