Dear All,

In mid June I sent you a message explaining our plans for a child labour desk within CRIN and our plans for CRIN's web site. If you have internet access, please visit the child labour section of the site as your comments and ideas are always welcome. However, I thought it would be useful to update you on progress so far and to request again for any relevant materials. I apologise for the length of this email but I wanted you all to have a good idea of what we have done and plan to do.

The current status of the Child labour section of the web site

Section 1

Briefing papers

We have published papers or summaries from Anti-slavery International, Bonded Liberation Front, Concerned for Working Children, and Kuleana and we have received text from Concern for Children and the Environment, Save the Children and World Vision. IF YOU HAVE A BRIEFING PAPER ON CHILD LABOUR

WHICH YOU WOULD LIKE TO BE PUBLISHED ON CRIN'S WEB SITE, please contact me. ||

Links

We have created links with UNICEF, Radda Barnen, Rugmark campaign, South African Department of Labour. IF YOU HAVE ANY OTHER SUGGESTIONS, please contact me

Publication lists

We have published resource lists from UNICEF and Antislavery International and are publishing one from Save the Children. IF YOU KNOW OF ANY OTHER RECOMMENDED BIBLIOGRAPHIES, please contact me. ||

Section 2: Whats Happening?

The New ILO Convention

We have published background information from the ILO on the draft Convention, including the questionnaires sent to state governments. We have also published the NGO survey on child labour prepared by the NGO Group for the Convention on the Rights of the Child. IF YOU KNOW OF ADDITIONAL INFORMATION WE SHOULD PUBLISH, please contact me. ||

Conferences and meetings

We have published information about the Amsterdam Conference, including reports from Antislavery International, Concerned for Working Children and ILO. CWC have sent us some further papers which we will put up as well as ENDA's communique.

We are also planning to publish all the background papers which are being prepared for the Osolo conference as well as the papers from the regional consultations. IF YOU HAVE ANY INFORMATION AND MATERIALS FROM ANY OF THE REGIONAL CONSULTATIONS, please let me know.

We are publishing information about the Global March, so far only background information, but we are planning to include contact details of key organisations.

Organisations involved in child labour

We are including contact details for organisations which are specialised in child labour activities so far we have listed: Antislavery

International,
Bangladesh Shishu Adhikar Forum, Bonded Liberation Front, Child Workers in Asia, Child Workers in Nepal, Cholai Action for Child Labour, Concerned for Children and the Environment Nepal, Concerned for Working Children, DCI
Colombia, ENDA Jeunesse Action, Fundacao Abring Pelos Direitos da Crianca,
Kuleana, SPARC, South Asian Coalition on Child Servitude and WAO Afrique.
IF YOU HAVE ANY FURTHER ADDITIONS, please contact me.

Research

I would like to include information about current research (only a few lines for each programme), if you are conducting research into child labour, please let me know.

Your responses

I have had responses to my original request for child labour information for CRIN web site from Child Workers in Asia, Concerned for Working Children, Bonded Liberation Front, Defence for Children International, Colombia, Antislavery International, Save the Children UK, UNICEF, World
Vision, Concern for Children and the Environment Nepal, ENDA and Kuleana.
Information includes briefing papers, position papers, bibliographies and information about forthcoming conferences.

I have had promises of information Indra, ANPPCAN and so lookward to receiving NATS.

For those of you who have not responded, please let me know if you will be doing so in the future so that we can plan our work.

Once again sorry for the length of this email and I hope to hear from you all in the very near future.

Kind regards

Becky Purbrick
CRIN Coordinator
